Pioneer Netflix Pick of the Week

The Four Falls of Buffalo is about the 1990-94 Buffalo Bills going to the Super Bowl 4 times in a row and losing all 4 times. They came very close a couple times, but another time they were just embarrassed. This movie brings in players to talk about going through this grueling experience of going 4 times, and never getting to win. It also shows that no matter if they lost the city of Buffalo still supported them as if they had won the Super Bowl. It shows that the fans will always stay true to their team, no matter how disappointing they might be at times.

This movie got the rating it did from the production, and the authenticity of it. To hear straight from the players mouth about what happened and how they felt was heartbreaking. You just wanted them to win even though you knew that they had lost. This movie was very well executed from start to finish. ★★★★★

BALLIN' BRISCOE

On a historic Thursday night last week, Ryan Briscoe bolted to the rim for a layup that sealed his 1,000 career point for Duchesne. Ryan has been a stalwart on the Duchesne Varsity Basketball team for 4 years. Ryan who surely benefitted from the guidance of his brother Sam, is definitely a leader on this team and an inspiration for the younger members of the team.

Congratulations, Ryan!

1000 POINTS

Ryan undoubtedly has sealed his place in the hallowed halls of the Duchesne Legends and the Pioneer Faithful thank him for all he has given to our community

"If you ever wondered why great players do great things. #Hardwork." -Mr. Wilhite

THE NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK

Bailey Wilson is a transfer student from Francis Howell High School. She transferred as a sophomore because one of her goals for high school is to get to know as many people as possible in all of her classes. At Francis Howell, a grade level was nearly double the size of Duchesne's student body. Bailey is going to get involved at Duchesne by joining clubs, and playing women's golf and tennis. Welcome to the Duchesne family Bailey.

Nathan Channell is a transfer from De Smet Jesuit High School. He did not like the large classroom sizes at De Smet, and was introduced to Duchesne. Nathan likes the smaller class sizes at Duchesne and is noticing that everybody is friendly. His classes are making him feel welcome, and has found his new school family. Nathan is planning on joining as many clubs as he can to keep him busy and involved for his time at Duchesne.

TBH...

The Rams have officially moved to Los Angeles. So now, St. Louis sports fans, it's time to focus on our two winning teams.

Stan Kroenke announced a proposal for a big new stadium in Inglewood, California, that could be shared with the Chargers. The one thing the stadium won't have? A playoff team.

On Wednesday, the Powerball was drawn with the jackpot estimated at 1.5 billion dollars. This amount almost would have been enough to keep the Rams in St. Louis.

This week, a CYC basketball team composed of seniors from Duchesne went viral with an insane trick shot in a CYC league game. Look out, Dude Perfect!
