

DID YOU KNOW

LIFE HACKS

CLUBS, SPORTS AND INFO

NETFLIX

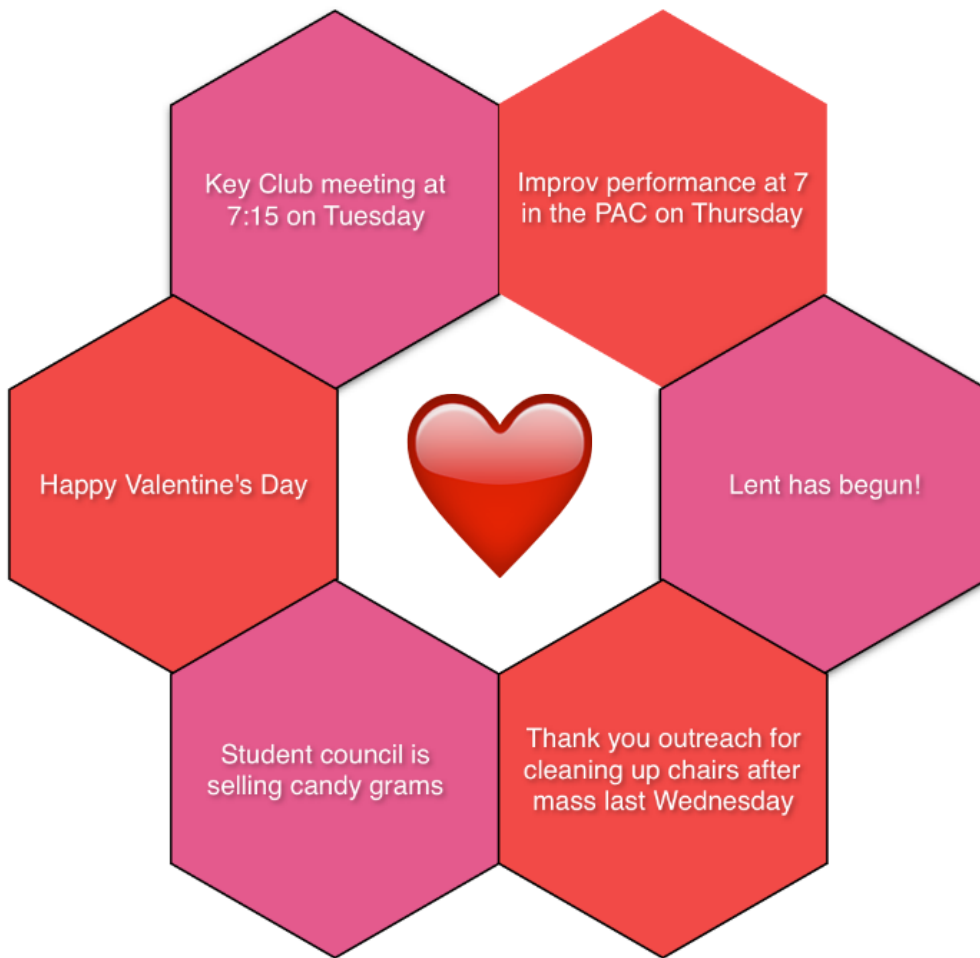

PIONEER BLAST

Things I Hate: Valentine's Day

Valentine's Day is a horrifyingly awful holiday. If we completely exclude the commercialization and the fact that it exploits human relationships for economic progress, it is still abhorrent on other levels. It seems like people make a big deal out of Valentine's Day because everyone else around them makes them feel like they should make a big deal out of it. It's like a national case of peer pressure, and it comes at you from all sides until you're so weary, you just give in to it. Valentine's Day not only alienates over 30% of the population who is single, it then forces those who are attached to pretend that they care about the sanctity of the day, when no one except Hallmark does. There is less meaning to a romantic gesture on Valentine's Day than any other day because you don't have a choice. Celebrate if you want. Well...I guess you don't really have a choice, we as a society have officially decided that for you. Good Luck! - By JT Schwarzbauer

PIONEER CLUB

An All-American Linebacker after College

2015 SuperBowl MVP

58

VON MILLER
ALL-PRO OUTSIDE LINEBACKER

Set an all-time 60 yd Dash record at 2011 Combine

Defensive MVP of 2011 Senior Bowl

Career Stats:
60 Sacks
260 tackles
16 Forced Fumbles
2 Touchdowns

Butkus Award Winner

Minor of Poultry Science at Texas A&M

Drafted 2nd overall in 2011

Netflix Pick of the Week

Can't Buy Me Love is a classic that everyone should see especially over Valentine's Day weekend. It was released back in the 1980's but you can watch it with significant others, friends, and even alone. It revolves around Patrick Dempsey's character, Ronald Miller, and Amanda Peterson's character, Cindy Mancini. Dempsey's character is the nerdy boy next door and Peterson's character is the popular cheerleader. The plot will make you laugh, sympathize, and maybe even cry. This movie is a cheesy 80s teenage love story that is both fun and entertaining.

★★★★★ / 5

Girls Basketball:

The team had a big win against Rosati on Tuesday. They are now preparing for senior night on Thursday. Be here to support the senior girls.

Swim and Dive:

The girls are gearing up for AAA Conference meet this weekend. Good luck, ladies!

Hockey:

The team is still in the playoffs, they need a win tomorrow to stay alive. They are really digging deep for this next win.

Boys Basketball:

The team was explosive last Friday against the Crusaders in the Coronation game. Ryan Briscoe had a hot hand all night long to lead the Pioneers to a win.

| Sport: | Opponent: | Win/Loss | Score: |
|------------------|-------------|----------|--------|
| Boys Basketball | St. Dominic | Win | 68-50 |
| Swim and Dive | N/A | N/A | N/A |
| Girls Basketball | Rosati Kain | Win | 56-33 |
| Hockey | N/A | N/A | N/A |

Coronation Pep Rally

Last Friday, a pep rally was held for the Coronation basketball game and dance. The pep rally was kicked off by the representing students from each grade. After that, the cheerleaders performed an amazing cheer with pyramids, flips, and more.

To top it off, The Diamond Line, along with a handful of Senior boys, performed a very talented and hilarious number, which include The Back Street Boys. What a great way to kick off Coronation weekend!

Did You Know?

1. One of the first Valentine's Day practices occurred in the Middle Ages. The names of eligible women were put into a bowl for the men to draw from to see who their "Valentine" would be.
2. In the U.S. alone, over 1 billion dollars worth of chocolate is purchased for Valentine's Day.
3. 15% of U.S. women send themselves flowers on Valentine's Day.
4. On average, 220,000 wedding proposals take place on Valentine's Day, 10% of the annual total.
5. Over 50 million roses will be given on Valentine's Day

LifeHacks

Have chapped lips? Put a water soaked green tea bag on your lips for 5 minutes. Problem solved!

You can predict the weather by just looking at your coffee. High air pressure is an indicator of sunny weather, which will push the bubbles to the edge of your cup. Rain is likely if the bubbles go towards the middle.

Getting her a gift for Valentine's Day? Tell her you got something and have her guess what it is. She'll list things she's been wanting.

Netflix streaming quality poor? Press Ctrl+Shift +Alt+S and change the buffer rate to 3000 for HD video.

Fake or Real?

Last Week's Fake or Real

