

ARCHBISHOP MAY SERVICE AWARD WINNERS – Where Are They Now?

KEVIN HUSSEY – 1996 awardee

1. Was there a key influence at Duchesne that prompted you to be so interested and involved in service? Please give specifics if possible.

I would say not one key influence, I would say it is the culture of Duchesne. Having older brothers who were involved in the Key Club, I was exposed to that organization at a young age and the good work they did while also making good friendships and having fun. Duchesne is a place that challenges you to look for ways to serve in the community and school,

This instilled from the day you start as a Freshman. The great thing about Duchesne, there are plenty of organizations and ways to get involved, some of which are faculty led and others student led. The faculty does an outstanding job on leading by example.

2. Have you continued to be involved in service in your life after Duchesne? Please give a few examples, if possible.

I have continued to be involved in service post Duchesne. My family and I attend Incarnate Word Parish in Chesterfield, MO, I have been involved as a member of the Parish Board of Education, member of the Youth Athletic Association, coaching CYC sports and involved with Scouts. With the Scout troop, we have served meals at St. Peter and Paul in Soulard.

3. We know you've done a lot for others; what do you feel you've gained in the time you've spent in the service of others? What have you taken away from the experience(s)?

That there is good in everyone and people are appreciative of the help. For me personally, hopefully making a difference in their day, whether completing a project or coaching on the field. I hope the people I have been of service to are able to take something away from the experience as well. It can be as simple as just listening to them talk, or instilling confidence in a player on the field or a Scout.

Please let us know what you are doing now.

I have a bachelor's degree and MBA from Lindenwood University and have been working in retail and category management since 2000. Currently I am the Customer Development Manager for Southern Glazer's Wine & Spirits on their National Accounts team.
