

Bishop Du Bourg came from America and asked Mother Barat to send some nuns to start a school in the Louisiana Territory. Philippine's heart was filled with excitement at the thought of being a missionary and sharing Jesus with the Indians.